Use Case 3: Class Management Admin Functions

Step 1: Navigate to the Website

1. Open your web browser.
2. Go to jaywing.etowndb.com.

Step 2: Open the Login Modal

1. Locate the Login button in the upper-right corner of the screen.
   a. If screen minimized, click the 3 lines to find button
2. Click the Login button.
   b. A login modal will appear.

Step 3: Login

1. Use the following login credentials
   a. Type ' reddign@etown.edu'' in 'Email Address' box.
   b. Type 'ninja123' in 'Password' box.
2. Click the 'Login' button within the popup.
   a. If popup for 'Change your password', click 'Ok'

Step 4: Manage Classes

1. Click on "Class Managment" tab on navbar
   a. If screen minimized, click the 3 lines to find tab
2. Create a Class

a. Class Name: Software Engineering
b. Course Code: CS341
c. Description: Group project based class using a versioning control system
d. Click the blue Add class button

Step 5: Add New Enrollment

1. Select Class from dropdown: 'Software Engineering (CS341)'
2. Select User from dropdown: 'muz (Muzahidul Islam)'
3. Keep the Role as 'Tutor'
4. Click 'Add Enrollment' button

Step 6: Confirmation of Enrollment

1. Look at the 'Current Enrollments' section, there should be an enrollment for Software Engineering that we just added
2. Click on "Tutors" dropdown on the navbar
   a. If screen minimized, click the 3 lines to find tab
3. Click the 'Find a Tutor' button that appears in the drop-down.
4. Click on the 'Software Engineering (CS341)' button
5. Verify that the tutor and class description match up with the correct class

Step 7: Logout

1. Click the 'Nancy' drop-down button in the top right corner on the navbar
   a. If screen minimized, click the 3 lines to find wings
2. Click 'Logout'

This completes Use Case 3.